Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By Peter M. Herold

Houses are torn down, but liemes are broken up. Many gardens about town have been plowed the past week.

Warren Wilson was home from Youngstown on Sunday. Cli. ord Paisley and Miss Elsie Fisher were home from Youngstown over Sunday was a busy day in town with autos and motorcycles, both new and second hand. 'Tony Pasich has gone to a mine three miles from Washington, Pa., to be a motorman. Isaac Culp and wife of Columbiana were here Sunday visiting at the home of J. E. Gilbert and wife,

Miss Lucile Taylor and gentleman friend of Youngstown visited her grandparents here Sunday afternoon. A wagon load of strawberries, pine-apples and other semi-tropical fruit was sold upon our streets on Satur day.

Joseph Cox, sr., has returned from Bellaire and is working in the Mill-ville mines. Mrs. Cox has charge of the greenhouse. Sub-district president John Saxon of Salineville was summoned here Friday evening to settle some local differences at the Millville mines.

Paul Senheiser, John G. Smith, Glenn Smedley and Clarence Baker went to Greenford Saturday evening to see the play of "Charley's Aunt." Memorial day sermon will be preached to old soldiers and others in the Lutheran church next Sunday fore-noon by the pastor, Rev. L. W. Gross. A kleiney pony colt was foaled at E. E. Feicht's barn east of town re cently, and it will not be long until Master Harry can drive a team of

The East End and the West End kids played a game of base ball on the town lot at 9 o'clock Saturday forenoon, with a score of 8 to 19 in favor of the West Ends.

Four large wagon loads of berry crates and baskets were delivered to growers west of town Friday and Saturday. This year's crop is uncertain as yet, but we trust for the best.

Prof. B. F. Stanton, former princi-pal of the Salem high school, and at present the superintendent of the Ashland (Ky.) schools, is wanted as superintendent of the Alliance schools. Mr. Stanton has the matter under advisement.

Master Eddle Piller, who works on the Abraham Zimmerman farm at Millville, has purchased a wheel from the Mead Cycle Co. and thinks of vis iting at the home of his brother Euon his new wheel.

In cool weather we eat ice cream for the flavor, and in hot weather we eat it for the arctic effects. At all times we eat it because we like it. We enjoy a great many other things while traveling through this vale of tears, when we have the price.

Carl Clay of Green township has been here a few times this spring with his motor truck filled with plants and flowers. When coming from Leetonia Friday afternoon he mistook your scribe for a geranium and took him in, but unloaded the goeds before Morg. DeJane has bought the Bossert property on High street, lately occupied by Isaiah Hileman and Victor Molle, the latter house having been built by Samuel Philby. The lo-cation is desirable, and with some repairs, can be transformed into a com-

Wm. Allen Roller, who has assess the personal property of his district in Green township for 26 years, has completed this year's work with the following summary: 118 horses valued at $16,560; 239 cattle at $9,710; 1 mule at $100; 91 sheep at $293; 150 hogs at $1,311. He found 10 planes at 5580, and goods, merchandise, etc., to the value of $11,400. Value of all moneys in possession or on deposit $20,945. In the canine line he listed 26 dogs, two of which the owners placed a value of $15, the others pay tax of $1 each. The grand total of all valuations in his precinct is $75,-779. No farm statistics were reported

The school board of Girard at its meeting Monday night selected Prof. Hamilton Cash Fish of Montpeller, succeed Supt. Armstrong, who was not an applicant. In commenting upon the reemployment of the corps of teachers for the Girard schools Tuesday's Vindicator says: Prof. E. S. Freed was re-elected as school principal at an increase of $105 for the year or $1,050. year's work, Mr. Freed, beside proving his great efficiency, has complete-ly won the favor of the high school student body and is one of the most popular members of the entire teachcorps. His re-election at an inhe great mass of Girard citizens and entire student body. The funeral of Dr. Samuel Ross Mc-Cready from his late home in Leetonia was largely attended last Friday afternoon. Out of respect for the decased all business was suspended in that village until after the funeral. Washingtonville was also very creditably represented both by Free Masons and others. Services were conducted at the home by Rev. Nixon of the Methodist church, and the Salem commandery Knight Templars in uniform made a good showing when marching to Oakdale cemetery where interment was made. The floral offerings by the different organizations were quite beautiful and numerous filling two Among the familiar faces in the procession and at the home we noticed, Judge Moore of Lis-bon, Prof. J. W. Moore and J. B. Morgan of Youngstown Rev. J. W. Moore of Columbiana, Dr. S. A. Con-rad, Clare Waggle, G. W. Ballantine and sone Frank and Will of Lectonia, C. H. Welkart, E. E. Senheiser, Jona-than Longbottom and Supt. J. L. Gray of this village.

The Lectonia Sod-Busters team was too much for the East Ends of Salem at Leetonia Sunday morning and the Salem nine went down to defeat by a score of 5 to 0.

James M. Atkinson is improving his newly purchased home by introducing gas, painting, papering, etc. The home is comfortably located on West Main street, is large, airy and well lighted. The Ohio State University claims to have graduated 24 pupils from Colum biana county, and 1033 in Franklin county. The institution will observe its 40th anniversary on Wednesday

June 11, with the commencement address by Gov. James M. Cox. Harvest Home picnic at Shelton's grove Saturday, August 23, will be addressed by Governor James M. Cox and A. P. Sandles, secretary of the state beard of agriculture. This speaking talent ought to draw a larger crowd than usual. The governor will likely fix his political fences, and the secretary will likely tell what he knows of farming on paper.

Prof. John W. Moore of Youngstown has been chosen to succeed Superintendent Newcomer of the Bast Palesgene in Youngstown, making the trip tine schools for two years at $1,700 per annum. Mr. Moore was first superintendent of the Washingtonville schools: then was chosen for the same position in the Lectonia schools; next went to Youngstown as principal of a ward school; now goes to East Palestine as superintendent. Another international booling match was held Monday afternoon, with six entries as follows: Elmer Imdermill, Joseph Fast, David Summerville, A. Guchemand, A. Tourdot and Ray Stouffer, the first two named being the victors. The route was from M. Higgins' place to the crossroads on Gobler's Knob and return for refreshments. After the game there was some masticating the fabric, chewing of the rag, etc. Memorial services will be held in the Lutheran church. The pastor, who is a son of a civil war veteran, will preach the sermon. bined choirs of the Methodist and Lutheran churches will frunish music. Following the custom of former years, both churches will unite in this service. Services will begin prompt ly at 10 o'clock. No preaching in the evening. Members may bring their envelopes at the morning service.

The people of Ohio are to vote this fall on a short ballot amendment to the constitution, which if passed, will permit the people to elect no state officers except the governor and lieuten-ant governor. All other state officials will be appointed by the governor. If this amendment passes, why not close up the polling booths, burn up the ballot boxes and turn the keys of the state over to the governor? We have had too much constitution tinkering now, and it is not likely that the voters will ask for a King in 'Ohio. The county bridge at stop 11, that was declared unsafe a few years ago, has now been fenced in and a red flag placed there to warn the public that it is unsafe. It may remain in this condition until after the completion of the Panama canal and a new This jail has been built at Lisbon. old "brig" was built by the late ceremiah Wilderson some 40 years ago, and should be replaced by a new one from fence to fence, so that night passengers on the Y. & O. will not fall in the ditch and sue the village, Rev. Luther W. Gross preached a Mother's day discourse Sunday night, using the 6th verse of the 22nd chapter of Proverbs as the basis of his remarks, being "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not deport from it." Brady Archer made the opening prayer. The pastor preached along the usual lines of the present English suffraget move ment for their equal rights of frage. He also spoke to the children to "Honor thy father and they moth-er." The best part of his discourse the efforts now being put forth by the State in training and educating the millions of boys and girls to be useful citizens; of the millions of dollars being expended annually for teachers, schools, books, apparatus, etc., to give our youths still better advantages than their parents had; and the probabilities are that with the right kind of teachers. with home encouragement, the rising generation will have greater tages for good than the generations of illiteracy in the past, for the 26th century demands the very best ob-

Bishop John P. Farrelly of Cleveland directed that all Catholic churches in his diocese sing the Te Deum after the last mass last Sunday, as an expression of thanksgiving for the recovery to health of "Our Holy Father, Plus X." Today is Corpus Christi in the church calendar. XIt is reported here that E. M. Slagle of Green township sustained a painful injury to his hip on Monday when leading a fractious cow. I know how that goes, for I once (and only once) lead a calf to pasture and tied one end of the rope around my body. The calf ran and so did I . and my steps, I imagined, were about 20 feet long. Just before I died the calf stopped. An enjoyable time was had by the Pythian sisters at their temple Tuesday night. The opening remarks were made by O. P. Moore, followed with recitations by Miss Rhea Gilbert and Mrs. Harley Woods, and a trio by Misses Myrtle Baker, Leora and Helen Thorpe. A recitation was given by Mrs. Ann Platt, followed by a voc-al quartet. A luncheon was served n which all participated to their full est capacity. Twenty-six persons from the Hart's

E. appointment surprised their pastor, Rev. Earl Lea, Tuesday night by calling at the parsonage and reminding him that he was 29 years young. They left substantial tokens of their friendship and had an enjoyable time from the well filled baskets brought with them. Rev. Lea went to Alliance this morning to attend district conference, and Mrs. Lea is visiting her parents at Danville. Richard Wilkinson, assessor of Sa lem township, has completed year's work and furnishes the following summary: 225 horses, valued at $23,670; 476 cattle at $16,340; 4 mules at $400; 594 sheep at $1,780; 269 hogs at $1,930; 4 automobiles at $900 Household goods, farming utensils and other articles not otherwise listed amounts to $9,040. He listed 9 watch es at $50 and 32 planos at $2,760 Value of goods, merchandise, etc. $6,380. Money, in possession or on deposit, $41,370. One dog was listed at $20 and 50 ordinary dogs. The grand total of all items is $108,650. The crops and other statistics show that there was 5,880 bushels of wheat last year, 97 bushels of rye and 10 acres sown for this year's harvest. There was 21,230 bushels of corn and 1,341 tons of hay, 15 tons alfalfa. There was 17,600 gallons of milk sold for family use in 1912; in butter ther was 28,110 pounds home made butter and 2,000 pounds of creamery butter There were 27,150 dozen eggs, 64 gallons of maple syrup from 430 trees. There were 7,180 bushels of apples. Wool shorn, 4350 pounds. Domestic animals died, 2 horses, 6 cattle, 23 sheep and 4 hogs.
